When it comes to how parents are influenced by the myths involved in the collegiate recruiting process, Lisimba Patilla has experienced it first hand- emotionally & intellectually. As a former student – athlete who background consists of 3 generations of student-athletes who were awarded college scholarships in basketball, wrestling and football he understands all the myths that exist in the process. When Lisimba became a high school assistant coach and experienced parents who trusted the recruited myths he realized it was his time. I’ll say as a coach, some of the things about the dialog between a coach and a recruit was right on. We don’t want them to know that but that’s how it is!

I have seen other college student/athlete promoter's products and I know this program is as good or better and it is much less expensive. Some other programs only consider the athlete while Lisimba considers the student as well as the athlete in helping in making a good college choice. I like what I see and am happy to be a part of the process.

Lisimba does his homework and prepares himself for each step he takes. Lisimba is a family man and I believe he relates well with young people. I believe his unending drive will help him to succeed in whatever endeavor he chooses.

In less than a week after we sought Coach Patilla's advice, he had put together a web link, downloaded film and contacted hundreds of schools. We received nearly instantaneous feedback from coaches at all levels... In addition, Coach Patilla inspires tremendous confidence in young athletes; His knowledge of academic and sports recruiting has been an invaluable service to the Medina family of athletes...

This fall we hired him to assist in the athletic recruiting for our son's college education. He is a professional who truly loves what he does and is devoted to meet his goals. It's amazing the impact he can make in such a short period of time.
